"Path of War" reworks the rather polarizing maneuver system originally created for the D&D 3.5 system for Pathfinder, and what a great spiritual successor it is. Lead designer Christopher Bennett (better known online as ErrantX) has taken everything that was good about The Tome of Battle and made it even better.

Warder//Magus could be interesting, Spell and Board. You lose the critting spells aspect, but you gain a hell of a lot of survivability. Here's the thing: the Path of War characters are very much looking to be the 'active' part of a gestalt, their action economy well spent, compared to say, a fighter.
