Tolerance Tolerance means that even if you think that someone is going down the wrong path, or the path that you do not consider right, you recognize that is merely your opinion. Tolerance means that you allow him to take the path that he believes to be right, just as he allows you to take the path that you believe to be right.

Words of Wisdom: The virtue of tolerance. By Michael Hickey.

Published on:

7/19/2008. The English
word 'tolerance' came into our language in the middle ages from the Latin word
'tolerare' which meant to bear or endure. By the mid 1700s, the word evolved to further imply one who was free
